Many years ago, there was an old woman. She lived with her little black cat in a small cottage in the middle of the forest. There was a village near the forest. The people from the nearby village were frightened of the old woman because she looked like a witch. They didn't go near her cottage. "Stay away from her!" many of them said. "She is a witch."

One day, a little boy was on his way home when he got lost in the forest. He didn't know what to do, so he sat on a rock and cried. After some time, the old woman found the boy and took him home to his family. His parents were so happy to see him. Then they realised the old woman wasn't a witch at all, but just a lonely, old woman. They told the other villagers how she helped their son. Many villagers became her friends after that day.
